REFUND POLICY

The Australian Institute of Classical Dance Inc. (AICD) will grant special consideration to an entrant of any award or scholarship event, where they are unable to attend that event due to circumstances beyond their control, which include serious illness, compassionate reasons; a family bereavement, a natural disaster or serious adverse weather condition that prevents the entrant from attending the event. In these circumstances, compensation may be sought. The AICD will not grant special consideration on the grounds of minor illnesses, mistaken timing, optional commitments of a personal nature or if an entrant changes their mind. An application for special consideration must be submitted to the secretary of the state committee where the event is held, within two weeks, following the event date. In the case of illness, this must comprise a signed medical certificate or doctor's letter, indicating that the entrant was indisposed on the day of the event. In other cases, a signed statement from an appropriate person is required, outlining the circumstances, together with any other appropriate supporting documentation. An application submitted for special consideration will be assessed by the appropriate AICD State Committee and where deemed appropriate, and at its sole discretion, a portion of the entry fee; not less than 50%, may be refunded. Refunds will be processed within four weeks of the event being completed if all applicable details have been submitted.
